19th January 1926.

M. Srikantia, Esq., M. A., B. L.,

Honorary Secretary, Public Library, Mysore.

To

P. G. D'Souza, Esq., B. A., B. L.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your kind notice that the Mysore Gazette has not been supplied to this Library from the 1st of January 1936. Two letters were sent to the Compiler, Mysore Gazette requesting him to despatch the issues immediately; and no reply is yet forthcoming. I request you to be good enough to arrange to supply the same regularly and also to let me know why the supply was stopped. A very early reply is awaited.

The issue of Gazette has been stopped.

of 27.10.20 are subd for perusal. It does not seem that the ^{Public} Libraries Bill & Mysore were included in the general order. The Compiler will be asked to supply the Gazette to these libraries as before. They are Govt aided institutions & practically under the control of Govt.
